News from The Fund

- Have you voted yet? Early voting has already started in New Jersey. The American Civil Liberties Union of New Jersey (ACLU-NJ), The League of Women Voters of New Jersey (LWVNJ), and Salvation and Social Justice, have created resources to assist you in learning more about the candidates and where and how you can vote. Read about each candidate and where they stand on the issues that matter most to you, and do not forget—election day is Tuesday, November 5, 2024.
- Exciting developments are afoot at The Fund. Between October 30th and November 20th, our President, Brandon McKoy, will moderate a three-part series at Princeton University, in partnership with the School of Public and International Affairs – New Jersey Department on the Garden State and its place in the American economy. Each session will feature a prominent national economic policy figure, a New Jersey advocate, and an academic with expertise on the topic being discussed. We hope you will consider attending this exciting series. Register below:
 - Part One on October 30: The Drive to Repair Our Economy: Understanding What's Broken, Why It Broke, and How We Can Fix It
 - Part Two on November 12: Can We Fix It? Yes We Can: New and Effective Ideas to Promote a More Inclusive, Productive, and Healthy Economy for All
 - Part Three on November 20: Where Do We Go From Here: Pursuing Rights, Justice, and Love as Economic Goals for New Jersey and the Country

Grantee News

- Spearheaded by the New Jersey Alliance for Immigrant Justice, multiple grantees held a press conference highlighting the importance of protections for immigrant communities in spaces that offer health, education, and other essential public services. Representatives from, AAPI New Jersey, ACLU-NJ, American Friends Service Committee, Faith in New Jersey, Wind of the Spirit, and others were present during the event which took place in Newark.
